INTERROGATIVE PRONOUNS

We use them to ask something

They always go at the beginning of the sentence. Remember the WASV formula.

The most important ones are:

WHAT: To ask about something.	What are you doing?
WHEN: To ask about time.	When is she coming?
WHO: To ask about people .	Who is this person?
WHY: To ask about a reason .	Why are you crying?
WHICH: To ask about something specific.	Which is your favourite color?
WHERE: To ask about a place.	Where is the shopping center?
HOW: To ask about a condition or manner.	How is your house?
HOW OLD: To ask about the age.	How old are you?

www.myteacher.es